Technical

The STI is approaching a cluster of heavy resistance between 2660 and 2750. There are retracement levels, the 200 week moving average and historical highs in this region. Our view is that the probability of a pullback in this region is high, however, the cluster of resistance levels makes it difficult to identify a more precise region where the pullback might begin. The market might see-saw between resistance levels before selling off.

US Market News

Stocks fell on Wednesday as investors worried that China's banks might be ready to hit the brakes on lending to stem market excesses, a move that could curb the global economic recovery.

Concerns about China hurt commodity prices and hit shares in the energy and raw materials sectors, while a steep drop in US durable goods orders in June fed fears of more economic weakness.

Oil futures fell US$3.88, or 5.8 per cent, to settle at US$63.35 per barrel after US government data showed a surprisingly large increase in crude inventories last week. Shares of energy companies also slid, with Chevron Corp down 1.8 per cent at US$67.12. The S&P energy index dropped 2.1 per cent.

The Dow Jones industrial average dropped 26 points, or 0.29 per cent, to close at 9,070.72. The Standard & Poor's 500 Index fell 4.47 points, or 0.46 per cent, to 975.15. The Nasdaq Composite Index lost 7.75 points, or 0.39 per cent, to 1,967.76.
