FY16 norm profit likely back on growth track

THAILAND | SET | PROP | COMPANY RESULTS

BLOOMBERG LH TB | REUTERS LH.BK

4QFY15 profit up 3% on strong operating performance

LH posted a moderate growth of 3% y-y in 4QFY15 profit as gain from asset sale to the Fund turned in lower than that of the same period a year earlier (Bt1.6bn vs Bt2.5bn). The quarterly profit topped our forecast on extra gains. LH declares 2HFY15 dividend of Bt0.35 and the stock will trade ex-dividend on April 29.

The company's core operating performance remained strong. Total revenue grew 11% with condo revenue rising 18% y-y to Bt3.2bn (a combined Bt2.4bn revenue recognition from The Room Rama IV and The Key Wutthakad) and SDH/TH revenue climbing 8% to Bt5bn on the back of strong presales of Bt6.9bn—its recently launched project at Bangna received overwhelmed response and LH had its hand full to meet buyers' demand. The robust revenue growth pushed indirect cost lower while gross margin widened to 34% from 33% as condo projects yield strong margins. Still more to come, SG&A expense reduced by 18% and profit contribution from all associates jumped 47%.

Growth target looks justified, our FY16 profit projected at 6% rise

In 2016, we project norm profit to grow 6% and net profit to fall 9% in a lack of gain on asset sales. Our forecast is based on: 1) a 13% growth in total revenue to Bt27.2bn—LH's current backlog is Bt9.4bn (Bt3.5bn from SDH/TH and Bt5.9bn from condo projects), 2) a flat gross margin, and 3) a slight increase in SG&A expense as LH is expected to launch marketing campaigns to boost presales. FY16 DPS is expected at Bt0.54.

SDH/TH presales shrank by 2% to Bt20.2bn in 2015 while presales saw a strong improvement in the second half of the year, particularly in 4QFY15 when the company registered as much as Bt6.9bn vs Bt4.4bn in 3QFY15. As such, LH has set its SDH/TH presales target at Bt21bn, up 4% with a plan to open nine projects over course of the year, worth a combined Bt16.9bn. Combined with the Bt3.5bn backlog to be recognized this year, we expect SDH/TH revenue to grow 16% to Bt20.9bn.

Condo backlog to be realized as revenue this year is currently Bt5.9bn, representing 95% of Bt6.2bn condo revenue registered in 2015. We expect cancellation rate to be minimal in favor of the company's previous low cancellation record in its high-end condos, while most condo projects to be transferred in 2016 generated take-up rate as high as 83% (on average) with the unsold units only Bt2.8bn, which we expect a conservative sale of inventory at Bt400mn. Hence, condo revenue is expected to reach Bt6.3bn vs Bt6.2bn a year earlier.

We are growing confident about FY16 revenue but with the gloomy sentiment, the pace of increase in selling price would be moderate and LH may have to create enticing campaigns to boost sales and hence revenue. For this reason, gross margin seems to stay level and SG&A expense would increase slightly.

Cheap valuation amid attractive yield, upgrade to 'BUY' with Bt9.50/share target price

In view of low revenue risk and strong growth potential, we upgrade LH shares to 'BUY' with a target price of Bt9.50/share. Currently, LH is trading at a compelling P/E of 13x, below its historical average of 15x and a dividend yield of 4% for 2HFY15 performance and 6% for FY16.
